

Disclaimer

The O&G@SGH website is created purely for educational purposes only and specifically for the benefit of junior doctors serving in all the public health centres in the state of Sarawak. It is strictly a non-profit endeavour by the doctors from the department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology of Sarawak General Hospital. This website is not affiliated to any other official websites or organizations.

The information, guidelines and other teaching instruments being provided in this website is in our opinion suitable for the training of doctors and the management of various obstetrics and gynaecological cases in the state of Sarawak only. The department will not be held liable for any outcome related to the use of information being provided in this website outside the intended educational purposes and the targeted audience as stated above.

All content included on this site, such as videos, lectures and guidelines, is the property of the Obstetrics & Gynaecology Department of Sarawak General Hospital. Any improper use, including the reproduction, modification, distribution, transmission, republication, display, or performance, of the content found on this site is strictly prohibited.

Any organizations or individuals other than the medical staff of the Ministry of Health in Sarawak intending to utilize the contents of this website for whatsoever purpose must acquire an expressed consent and approval from the Obstetrics & Gynaecology Department of Sarawak General Hospital via email.